

SITE SPECIFIC LEADERSHIP, INC.

Why You Should Attend

If you're a board director, you will need to:

- Orient yourself to the task and fiduciary responsibility of the position
- Bridge credibility gaps with the membership
- Implement an effective communication channel
- Learn proven strategies to work efficiently with other board members
- Delegate to and collaborate with management
- Sharpen your leadership skills to govern well
- Learn how to avoid the pitfalls of malfeasance
- Pass on the legacy of good leadership to on-boarding members
- Implement a visionary approach to safeguard the future of your Association

Training materials include:

- A manual, resources, practice scenarios
- Each topic includes approaches to real-life problem situations , break-out discussions, exercises to practice and reinforce new learning

Flo@SiteSpecificLeadership.com

Copyright © 2011 by Flo Mauri, Site Specific Leadership
All rights reserved. Do not copy without permission

